Dear Robin,

Well, I'm back! Holy Jesus and all that religious farzon - I done got me some REAL religion and it's called the L-12 Review. I attested yesterday and whatever "it" was is totally and completely handled. It took damn near the entire land base to do it but who cares - it is over and that's what counts. Maybe one day I'll share some of the war stories but for now I just want to talk about the good stuff. But wait! Before I do - I did receive your most recent correspondence via the United States Postal System regarding one Mrs Lee Miller, somebody-else's-last-name now My dentures will be fitted on Tuesday and I'm sending the bill to YOU!
I know about those nasty matrimonial decisions and I know

Taken a moment right at the point where you ask all attending if anyone objects and called me I would have had a couple of things to say! But did anyone call me? N-O-O-O-O. She'll be here soon hopefully and I don't know what else to finish that thought with.

What else...

Gloria Cruz has moved in with me, I love having her too.

Still you can tell I'm running out of things to say here so I'll close for now and write more later.

I love you.
